To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this letter as a recommendation for Matt May. I first met Matt in the summer of 2001, when I began working at The Producing Office, a powerhouse Broadway firm that produced and managed a number of Broadway hits including Rent, Avenue Q, In The Heights, to name a few. Matt worked for Camp Broadway at the time, which was housed in the same office, and we became instant friends and professional confidantes. His leadership skills, infectious personality, attention to detail, and wealth of respect towards all levels of employees associated with our office, were admirable and impressive.

Over the years, Matt and I have remained in close touch since he moved to South Florida. He has become a solid source of inspiration, a non-biased ear to turn to, whenever I had a thought, concern or idea regarding my own career as a Company Manager. If ever a doubt crosses my mind, I tend to call him immediately to seek his advice, both as a friend, and as a professional.

I have always found Matt to be honest, polite, prompt, dedicated and a pleasure to work with. It is without hesitancy that I can recommend him for your organization. His enthusiasm and work ethic make him a pleasure to be around and would make him a true asset to any collaborative environment. He has a heart of gold and genuinely wants what is best for those around him.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at any time.

Warmest regards,

Nick Lugo
